Principal Investigator/Project Director – Institute on Disability and Public Policy Phase I – The Nippon Foundation – Via Subcontract from the National Technical Institute for the Deaf, Rochester Institute of Technology (NTID); 1 April 2010 – 31 August 2010, $99,867

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Developing a Comparative Meta-Analytical Model for Evaluating and Facilitating Accessible CI-Enabled Virtual Organizations.” NSF Grant. OCI-1007308, $98,051, 1 year. 2009

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Developing a Comparative Meta-Analytical Model for Evaluating and Facilitating Accessible CI-Enabled Virtual Organizations.” NSF Grant. OCI-0838492, $199,927, 2-years. 2008.

Co-Principal Investigator (with Stanton, et al) – CI-Facilitators: Information Architects Across the STEM Disciplines. NSF, $244,355. 2007

Co-Principal Investigator (with Horace Smith, Can Isik, and Patricia Stith) – “Syracuse University Ronald McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program.” Department of Education, $1,157,150, 5-years. 2006

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Enhancing the Cyberinfrastructure for National AGEP Integration: Rapid Prototyping and Evaluation of a Pilot NY AGEP Collaboratory,” NSF Grant No. HRD-060347, $188,367, 2-years. 2006.

Principal Investigator/Project Director - “Building and Evaluating a Pilot Collaboratory for the Southeast ADA Technology Assistance (SEADATA) Center.” Seed grant, Georgia Tech, June 2006, $15,000, 6 months.

Co-Principal Investigator (with Margaret Hermann and Hans Peter Schmitz) – “Transnational Non-Governmental Organizations as Agents of Change: Towards Understanding Their Governance, Leadership and Effectiveness,” NSF, Human and Social Dynamics, Grant Number SES-0527679, February 2005, $499,999 2005-07.

Co-Principal Investigator (with Peter Blank) – “Demand-Side Employment Placement Models” NIDRR National Institute for Disability and Rehabilitation Research (NIDRR). $2.5 Million, 5-years. 2005.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Leadership in the Digital Age: South African Quad Leadership in Information Infrastructure Development,” University of Maryland, Center for International Development and Conflict Management/Markle Foundation, $1,500, 2004.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “From Pawns to Partners: Policy Collaboratories and Their Impact on the Global Governance of Cyberinfrastructure,” Hewlett Packard Equipment Grant, $5,547, 2003-04.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—“Going Global, Locally: Understanding the Socio-Technical Factors Supporting Distributed Collaborative Learning between Developed and Developing Countries,” Microsoft Corporation, Community Affairs, $50,000, 2 years, 2003.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “From Pawns to Partners: Involving University of Michigan Students in the Development of an ICT Policy Collaboratory at the World Summit on the Information Society,” University of Michigan, International Institute, Advanced Studies Center, $10,000, 2003.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—“Support for the Global Graduate Seminar 2003,” equipment grant, Cisco Systems, $1,500, 2002.

Co-Principal Investigator – “Building the Information Society in Africa: Cultural Preservation and Networking in Emerging Democracies,” (with Hedstrom), USIA/US Department of State, $70,000, May 2001.

Investigator—National Science Foundation (Grant No. 0085951): “TTR/SOC + IM: Sustainable and Generalizable Technologies to Support Collaboration in Science” (with Olson, Olson, Finholt, Teasley, Atkins, Hedstrom, Radev, Yakel), National Science Foundation, 2.4 US$M, 5-years, 2001.

Investigator—National Science Foundation (Grant No. 0114368): “IGERT: Socio-Technical Infrastructure for Electronic Transactions, (with Mackie-Mason, Wellman, Gordon, Resnick, et al.), $2.7 M, 5-years, 2001.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—“Cotelco and the Global Graduate Seminar: Understanding Globally-Distributed Collaborative Learning Through the Use of Complex, Cross-National Virtual Teams,” Microsoft Research, $5,000, .5 months, 2001.

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Collaboratory on Technology Enhanced Learning Communities (COTELCO) and the Global Graduate Seminar on Globalization and the Information Society”, W.K. Kellogg Foundation/Alliance for Community Technology, 2001 ($40,000).

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Collaboratory on Technology Enhanced Learning Communities (COTELCO) and the Global Graduate Seminar on Globalization and the Information Society”, W.K. Kellogg Foundation/Alliance for Community Technology, 2000 ($10,000).

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Collaboratory on Technology Enhanced Learning Communities (COTELCO) and the Global Graduate Seminar on Globalization and the Information Society”, W.K. Kellogg Foundation/Alliance for Community Technology, 1999 ($10,000).

Principal Investigator/Project Director—UNESCO, "Analyzing Distributed Collaborative Learning Approaches for Africa," $5,000, 1999-2000.

Principal Investigator/Project Director—W.K. Kellogg Foundation (Grant No. P0058119), "Addressing the Challenges to Africa of Globalization and the Information Society with Theoretical and Applied Methods," $75,000, 1998-1999.

Grants Under Review

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Confronting Transnational Challenges in the Global Governance of Cyberspace: AI Safety, Cybersecurity, and Inclusion through Advanced Text Analytics” – Internet Society Foundation, $200,000. (May 2024)

Grants Submitted (Not Awarded)

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “ERNIE and BERT Evaluate Global SDG Implementation: Enhanced R-Based NLP Investigations and Experiments (ERNIE) Using Bidirectional Encoder Representations from Transformers (BERT) to Evaluate Implementation of the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Goals” – Google.Org, $471,629, March 2023

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “IDPP Disability Inclusive and Accessible Global Governance (DIAGG)” – The Nippon Foundation, $481,183, January 2017

Co-Principal Investigator (with Louis Goodman) – “IDPP-Towards a National Disability Strategy for Gabon” – Government of Gabon, $401,497, July 2017

Co-Principal Investigator – Enhancing Internet Freedom Through Technical and Policy Collaboration – US Department of State, $1,700,000, September 2015

Principal Investigator/Project Director – “Building App-based Technologies to Mobilize Accessible Neighborhoods (BATMAN)” – National Science Foundation, $5,000,000, 4-years, February 2017

Co-Principal Investigator – Enhancing Internet Freedom Through Technical and Policy Collaboration – US Department of State, $1,700,000, September 2015

Principal Investigator/Project Director – Advancing Social Science Analysis for a New Age (ASSANA): Moving from Traditional Methods for Analyzing Large Scale Text-Based Data to Socially Intelligent Computational Methods - National Science Foundation, $215,250. 23 November 2010

Principal Investigator/Project Director – Global Collaboratory on Disability, with the Burton Blatt Institute, Syracuse University. 1 October 2010 – 30 September 2015, $79,979.
